Premiums

The amount we charge you for this insurance when you first insure with us and each time you renew is called the premium. We calculate your premium after taking a variety of factors into account. Some factors can affect the amount of your premium. The higher your risk profile, the higher your premium. Using our experience, we decide what factors will increase your risk profile and how they impact on the premium. Your premium also takes into account our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. stamp duty, GST and fire services levy), in relation to your policy. These amounts will be shown separately on your policy schedule as part of the total premium payable.

The following table is a guide on how these factors combine together and may influence our assessment of the risk and therefore, your premium.

The postcode where your building and/or contents are located	Lower risk postcode	Higher risk postcode
The amount you choose to insure your building and/or your contents	Lower sum insured	Higher sum insured

The age of your building	Lower age	Higher age
The construction type of your building	Brick	Non-brick

Paying your claim

We only pay once

Where a claim is payable under both the 'Cover for your building' and 'Cover for your contents' sections of this policy we will pay you the better benefit, but will not pay you under both sections.

When you have legal liability cover under both the 'Cover for your building' section and the 'Cover for your contents' section the most we will pay is the sum insured shown on your policy schedule inclusive of legal costs, charges and expenses, and these covers are not cumulative.

Reinstatement of your sums insured following a claim

Where there is loss or damage to your building or your contents, and a claim is admitted by us, the sum insured will be automatically reinstated without payment of an additional premium, unless the claim is for a total loss. If we pay the full sum insured for your building or contents then cover under those sections comes to an end.

If the claim is for a total loss of your building and we have paid you the sum insured then cover for your building will end but legal liability cover will remain in force until the expiry date of your policy.

How we pay a claim for your building

Where we pay a claim for your building, we will choose to do one of the following:

- Repair the damaged portion of your building.
- Replace your building using new materials.
- Compensate you the amount it would have cost us for repair or replacement.

If you decide not to repair or replace your building, or do not commence repair or replacement within six months of the date the loss or damage occurred, we will only compensate you for what it would have cost to repair or replace your building at the date of the loss or damage.

The most we will pay for your building

The most we will pay for your building is the sum insured shown on your policy schedule, plus additional benefits as listed in your policy.

Cash settlement

If you wish us to compensate you for your loss by a cash settlement you must put your request in writing for our consideration. At our sole discretion we may accept or decline your request.

If we choose to compensate you by a cash settlement we will pay an amount equal to the reasonable cost of repairing or rebuilding your building as determined by us, less any trade discount we receive or negotiate.

Matching building materials

Where we repair your building we will try to return your building to the same condition as when new, or when last renovated by matching building materials as far as we can.

Where we cannot achieve an exact match, we will use materials that match the damaged or lost materials as near as possible in our opinion. We will only do this to the area where the loss or damage occurred.

We will not pay for matching building materials in order to create a uniform effect throughout your building.

Unreasonable delay

We will not pay for any additional or increase in costs due to any unreasonable delay in the commencement of repairs to your building or rebuilding your building.

Building rebuilt at another address

If we agree to replace your building following loss or damage insured by this policy, you may do so to your specifications at your address or another address you choose.

We will not pay for any amount in excess of the amount we would pay if the change of address or specifications had not occurred.

How we pay a claim for your contents

Where we pay a claim for your contents, we will choose to do one of the following:

- Repair your contents.
- Replace your contents with new items.
- Compensate you the amount it would have cost us for repair or replacement.

The most we will pay for your contents

We will only pay up to the limits shown in your policy under "Cover for your Contents" or as as stated in your policy schedule. For all other items we will pay up the sum insured shown on your policy schedule unless otherwise stated in your policy.

Cash settlement

If you wish us to compensate you for your loss by a cash settlement you must put your request in writing for our consideration. At our sole discretion we may accept or decline your request.

If we choose to compensate you by a cash settlement, we will reduce the amount we pay you by an amount equal to any trade discount that we would have obtained from a supplier, had we chosen to repair or replace your contents.

Carpets or internal window furnishings

When we repair or replace your carpets or internal window furnishings, we will only pay for the repair or replacement in the room or rooms where the loss or damage occurred.

We will not pay for matching carpets or internal window furnishings to create a uniform effect throughout your building.

Complaints and Disputes

We work hard at building relationships with our clients. This requires communication, accessibility, and a commitment to providing quality products and services. However, disputes may still arise. We have therefore developed a complaints and dispute resolution process that is fair, efficient and accessible to all our clients.

Complaints

If you would like to make a complaint please contact your insurance intermediary in the first instance. Your insurance intermediary may then raise the matter with us. If your complaint cannot be resolved by us, you can request the matter be referred to a member of our Dispute Resolution Panel who will treat your complaint as a dispute and endeavour to resolve it through our internal dispute resolution process.

Dispute Resolution Process

Our internal dispute resolution process is available at no cost to you. We will keep you fully informed throughout the process and will reply to you within 15 days provided we have sufficient information to deal with the dispute.

If our internal dispute resolution facility is unable to resolve your dispute and you wish to take the matter further, we will provide you with information regarding a free external dispute resolution service or other external dispute resolution options (if any) that may be available to you. Alternatively you may seek independent legal advice at your own expense.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 45 days we will inform you of the reasons for the delay and that you may take the dispute to our external dispute resolution scheme, even if we are still considering your case.

We have a brochure about our internal procedures for handling complaints and disputes which is available on request.
